I'd Rather See a Sermon

I'd rather see a sermon
Than hear one any day
I'd rather one should walk with me
Than merely show the way
The eye's a better pupil
And more willing than the ear
Fine counsel is confusing
But example's always clear
And best of all the preachers
Are the men who live their creeds
For to see good put in action
Is what everybody needs
I soon can learn to do it
If you'll let me see it done
I can see your hands in action
But your tongue too fast may run
And the lectures you deliver
May be very fine and true
But I'd rather get my lesson
By observing what you do
For I may not understand you
And the high advice you give
But there's no misunderstanding
How you act and live.

a thousand sermons.

Did you know . . . Someone has said that when you carry the Bible, satan has a headache, when you open it, he collapses, when he sees you reading it, he loses his strength, AND when you stand on the Word of God, satan cannot hurt you!
